On motion of _____, which carried ____, the following resolution was adopted:

A RESOLUTION TO COMMEND JAMES K. RINDFLEISH IN THE DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL AND DEVELOPMENT SERVICES AS EMPLOYEE OF THE QUARTER

WHEREAS, James K. Rindfleisch has been employed by the Department of Environmental and Development Services since May of 1981 and currently holds the position of Biologist; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Rindfleisch's expertise in the field of Mosquito Control is well known as evidenced by his involvement in several local and regional initiatives such as his work with the FEMA Mosquito Control project during Hurricane Floyd in which he assisted with the development of aerial spray treatment guidelines for vector emergency responses and his work with the State West Nile Abrovirus Task Force in which he volunteered to write a Public Health West Nile Virus protocol, which was ultimately adopted; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Rindfleisch is also responsible for establishing an agreement with the Navy for mosquito service at two of their local facilities and for researching and building a fishery for mosquito fish to be used as an additional cost savings means of biological treatments, which was profiled in the Daily Press as a "Neater Skeeter solution"; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Rindfleisch has also shown himself to be creative and resourceful by crafting a 7 foot tall, 300 pound metallic mosquito constructed from scrap metal vehicle parts, which received notoriety in the media and won an award in the Peninsula Fine Arts Center's juried exhibition and for constructing an 18-foot metallic replica of a historic British ship, which was donated to the Waterman's Museum; and

WHEREAS, due to his creative endeavors and initiative Mr. Rindfleisch continues to make a positive contribution to the quality of life for the Citizens of York County and is recommended for Employee of the Quarter;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the York County Board of Supervisors this ____ day of _____, 2003, that James K. Rindfleisch, Biologist be and is hereby, congratulated upon his selection as Employee of the Quarter for the quarter ended December 31, 2002.
